

Mojo Times Website Privacy Policy

Version: (16/11/2018)

General

This Privacy Policy ("Policy") explains how Mojo, its Affiliates, Associates, Advertisers and Advisors (hereinafter referred to as "we", "us" or "our") collects, uses, discloses and protects the Personal Information, obtained explicitly through the website <https://www.mojotimes.com>("the website") and its IOS/Android Applications ("Application"), as well as other information automatically tracked while navigation. When you create an account and profile on the Mojo platform , we collect certain 'Personal Information' which includes information that will be available for viewing to a User of the Mojo Platform. Details pertaining to User's full name, age, marital status, nationality, gender, contact number/mobile number,address, IP address, e-mail address are other examples of Personal Information. This Privacy Policy also governs services, features, products, properties, or content we offer ("Offerings").

Such information will not be considered as sensitive if it is freely available and accessible in the public domain or is furnished under the Right to Information Act, 2005 or any other law for the time being in force.

Upon visiting the Website, you agree to this Policy with respect to the collection, processing and use of your personal data by us.

Collection of Information

We collect and store the information and content that you post to the Mojo Platform, including your articles, essays, pictures and any kind of write ups. Unless you have posted certain content anonymously, your Content, date and time stamps, and all associated comments are publicly viewable on the Mojo Platform, along with your name.

Your Contact information will be used to communicate with you (via e-mail, phone, text message, through the Mojo Platform or otherwise). When you communicate with us (via email, phone, text message, through the Mojo Platform or otherwise), we may maintain a record of your communication. By disclosing your contact information to Mojo, you consent to our use of your contact information to communicate with you.

To improve the responsiveness of the sites for the users, Mojo may use "cookies", or similar electronic tools to collect information to assign each visitor a unique, random number as a User Identification (User ID) to understand the user's individual interests using the Identified Computer. Unless the user voluntarily identify himself/herself (through registration, for example), Mojo will have no way of knowing who the user is, even if Mojo assign a cookie to the user's computer. The only Personal Information a cookie can contain is information the user supply. A cookie cannot read data off the hard drive. Mojo's 's advertisers may also assign their own cookies to the user's browser (if the user click on their ads), a process that Mojo does not control.

We collect certain information from and about its users directly from the user, and amongst other means, from Web server logs and with cookies.

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information collected online.

Subscribers And Visitors: In order to allow a visitor to gain an authorized access to the contents on the website, we obtain the complete information of the user such as contact information (full name, address, and telephone number), e-mail address, and method of payment, company details, designation, etc through the process of registration.

By visiting, accessing or availing any services available on the Website or Mobile App, the user explicitly consents to, without limitation or qualification, to the collection, storage, processing disclosure, use and transfer of his/her Personal Information provided by him/her in the manner as described in this Privacy Policy.

The following information may be automatically collected when you visit and use the Website:

- The type of operating system you use
- your IP address
- your browser type
- information about your use of the Website (when, how, how long, account used to log in, features/Scenes/Groups used while logged in; status and quantity of devices; operation mode)
- installations / smart devices (Soft-/Firmware versions of Gateway & Devices)
- first activation date
- clicks
- GPS and/or WIFI Position

- Your used language etc.

The information we collect helps us administer the Website, analyze its usage, protect the Website and its content from inappropriate use and improve the user experience.

Where possible, unique identifiers are anonymized and at no time do we attempt to identify you as an individual.

We do not collect precise real-time location information about your device.

Cookies: A cookie is a small amount of data that is sent to a user's browser from a web server and is eventually stored on a user's computer hard drive. This anonymous information is maintained distinctly and is not linked to the Personal Information one will submit to us. The anonymous information will be used for our understanding of how the website is used and for other statistical purposes. The website uses cookies to store information, such as the user's personal preferences after first visit to the site. Whether the user wants its web browser to accept cookies or not is up to the user. User can, thus, disable cookies by changing his browser settings, but this will disable some of the functionality or some parts of the website and make them inaccessible.

Log Files: As with most other websites, the website collects and uses the data contained in log files. The information in the log files will include browser types, areas of the website that are visited, the website from which a user came and the pages visited by the user throughout the website. We routinely use this web log information in the aggregate in order to administer and improve the website & ensure security.

When a user uses one of the location-enabled services (for example, when he/she access Services from a mobile device), Mojo may collect and process information about the mobile device's GPS location (including the latitude, longitude or altitude of your mobile device) and the time the location information is recorded to customize the Services with location-based information and features (for example, to inform you about restaurants in your area or applicable promotions). Some of these services require personal data for the feature to work and Mojo may associate location data with the users device ID and other information. If a user wishes to use the particular feature, he/she will be asked to consent to the users data being used for this purpose. The user can withdraw his/her consent at any time by disabling the GPS or other location-tracking functions on the device, provided the device allows to do this. See the device manufacturer's instructions for further details.

Personal data collected directly from you

- When we believe it is necessary to protect the rights, property, safety of ours or to comply with a judicial proceeding, court order, or legal process, or as evidence in litigation in which we are involved.

We may also share aggregated or de-identified information, which cannot reasonably be used to identify you.

Information Related to Advertising or Third-Party apps and websites:

To support and enhance the Offerings, we may serve third-party advertisements or communicate link to third-party websites and applications. These advertisements and links are sometimes targeted and served to particular users and may come from third party companies called “ad networks.” Ad networks include third party ad servers, ad agencies, ad technology vendors and research firms.

These third-party advertisements, websites and applications or any products or services offered through them are operated wholly by such third-parties and are not controlled by, or affiliated to, or associated with us unless expressly specified. We are not responsible for the transmission of information of any type and in any form, whatsoever, to and from such third-party. Any inclusion or exclusion of such third-party information shall not be deemed as an endorsement by us towards such third-party and accordingly, we are not responsible for the accuracy, integrity and quality of information of any type as may be available on such third-party websites or applications. Further, these third-party websites and applications may automatically receive your IP address to send advertisements to your browser and may make the use of cookies, JavaScript, web beacons and other technologies to measure the effectiveness of their advertisements and to personalize advertising content. Such practices are not governed by this privacy policy. You acknowledge that these third-party websites or applications are governed by their respective privacy policies and terms & conditions. It is recommended that you take any independent check on the privacy policies and terms & conditions of each or any of such third-party websites and applications before visiting or using any information presented therein. Mojo partners with third party advertising networks to display advertisements targeted to visitors of the Offerings.

Mojo times does not disclose any Personal Information to any third party companies for purposes of partnerships or advertising.

Aggregate Information:

We may collect statistical information about how both unregistered and registered users, collectively, use the Offerings (“Aggregate Information”). Some of this information may be derived from Personal Information. This statistical information is not Personal Information and cannot be tied back to you, your Account or your web browser.

Data Security

We have implemented reasonable and adequate physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your personal data from accidental loss and from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. We limit access to your personal data to authorized employees and contractors on a strict need to know basis. We store your personal data in a data center with restricted access and appropriate monitoring, and we use a variety of technical security measures to secure your personal data. In addition, we use intrusion detection and virus protection software.

However, please be aware that no security system can prevent all potential security breaches and note that we do not guarantee that unauthorized persons will always be unable to defeat our security measures.

Also, please note that we may store and process your personal data in systems located outside of your home country. However, regardless of where storage and processing may occur, we take appropriate steps to ensure that your personal data is adequately protected, consistent with the privacy principles set forth under this Policy.

Changes to this Policy

By signing up for the Offerings of the Website, the User consents to the collection and use of the previously mentioned information on the Website. We may periodically change the privacy policy without notice, and user is responsible for checking the policy periodically for revisions. All amended Terms become effective upon our posting to the Website, and any use of the Website after such revisions have been posted signifies the consent of the user to the changes. Where the changes are significant, a more prominent notice through email notification will be sent.

Data retention and account deletion

You have the option to terminate your account by visiting the relevant page in your profile settings on the website. We will remove all of your public information and posts, if any, on such termination and shall dissociate them from your account profile so that it is seen anonymous and not attributed to your identity. However, we may retain certain information about you for the purposes authorized under this Privacy Policy unless prohibited by law. The information is retained to prevent, investigate, or identify possible wrongdoing in connection with the Offering or to comply with legal obligations.

Your rights & choices

You may, of course, decline to submit information through the Mojo Platform, in which case we may not be able to provide certain services to you. You may also control the types of notifications and communications we send, limit the information shared within the Mojo Platform about you, and otherwise amend certain privacy settings.
